Our Vision

Training men to be strong in body, soul, and spirit in order to fulfill God's unique calling on their lives thus making them powerful change agents in their families, churches, and nations.

I Timothy 4:7b, 8“Train yourself to be godly. For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise both for the present life and the life to come.”

Core Values

- 1. Jesus Christ is our Lord and Savior who deserves our full love and devotion. It is the goal of every disciple to know Christ intimately and to abide in Him through obedience to His Word and dependence on His guidance. Philippians 1:21, 3:8-10, John 15:7
- 2 Life change happens best in small accountable communities where men are transparent and fully committed to Christ and each other. II Timothy 2:2, Colossians 3:16, James 5:16
- 3 The internalization and application of the truth of scripture to our lives is one of the principal ingredients in the renovation of the heart. Romans 12:2, John 8:31, 32, Joshua 1:8
- 4 Our bodies are God's dwelling place and property so it is important that we honor Him not only with morally pure lives but also through proper nutrition, exercise, and rest. I Corinthians 6:19, 20, I Timothy 4:7b, 8 I Thessalonians 4:7
- 5 God has a unique mission for each Christian to fulfill in this world. This special calling of God involves reaching and discipling people in the context of the local church. The completion of our mission will only happen when our hearts, minds, and bodies are transformed by His power and fully yielded to His Spirit. Romans 12:1, 2, Romans 8:11, Matthew 28:18-20
